1812      STEPHEN CAMBRELING

In 1818 Stephen Cambreling, a brother of Churchill Cambreling, opened an office as attorney and counsellor, at No. 42 Pine Street. He married in the city, and though now a widower, yet he had a fine family of children, and such as will keep the name respected in other generations.

v. 3, p. 116.

Churchill Cambreleng (brother-not an alumnus): His name was derived from his great-grandfather, Churchill Caldor, whose father came from Scotland and settled on Pamlico River. On the maternal line he was the grandson of John Patton, a gallant officer of the Revolution, Major of the 2nd Regiment of the North Carolina line in the Continental Army, and was engaged in the battles of Brandywine, Germantown and Monmouth. He was born in Washington, Beaufort Co., N.C., and educated in New Berne. From the situation of his family, for he was early an orphan, he left school before his education was complete, and went into a store as a clerk. He moved in 1820 to New York.

Mr. J. R. Brown, Jr.,

Dear Sir:

Through Mr. Cambreleng of East Orange, I am in receipt of your letter asking for data of the Cambreleng family.
I think I am now the oldest-living member of the family left-being the great-grand-daughter of Mary Anne Cambreleng, who was Mrs Eli Hoyt, and died in my home when I was a girl.

I have given you the only data I have that you seem to want. I think that my Mother's Father, Henry Churchill Hoyt, was educated at Union College.
My memory is very hazy now, and it may have been his father, Eli Hoyt.
When I was a child, I dined at my Uncle Stephen Cambreling's house in Great Jones Street, hence that address given. All of the family are dead, except possibly a daughter of his son, Churchill Cambreling, but unfortunately we have lost touch of her. Hoping the little information I could give will be of some service to you, I am

Very sincerely
Anne Cambreling Pitman
(Mrs. John Pitman)
